"Welcome to Python Glasgow!
A safe, inclusive, and friendly space for everyone.“
05-03-2025

Welcome!

- Hello, everyone!
  Whether you're new or a regular, we're glad you're here.
- Our promise:
  Everyone is welcome, regardless of gender, age, race, orientation, ability, or background.
- Together: Let's learn, share, and build a supportive Python community.

Code of Conduct Summary

- All members, attendees, speakers, sponsors and volunteers at our events are required to agree with the code of conduct that can be found at https://pythonglasgow.org/code-of-conduct

- We prioritize respect.
  Harassment or discrimination of any kind will not be tolerated.

- Keep it friendly:
  No offensive language, imagery, or unwelcome behaviour.

- Speak up:
  If you see something, say something. Organizers are here to help!

Photography & Streaming Notice

- Please be aware:
  - This event may be photographed, recorded, or streamed live for sharing on our social platforms.
- Your comfort matters:
  - If you prefer not to be filmed/photographed, let an organizer know – we'll respect your wishes!
- Questions or concerns?
  - Reach out to any organizer – we're here to help.

How to be in touch:

- Join our mailing list for updates:

- Join the conversation in the Python Glasgow Room in [Matrix]

Python Library of the month: Turtle

- Beginner-friendly library for visual programming.
- Control a virtual "turtle" to draw shapes/patterns.
- Ideal for teaching loops, conditionals, and functions.
- Customizable colours, speeds, and pen styles.
- Used in schools for teaching kids how to code

Thank you for making Python Glasgow awesome!

Let’s keep it welcoming, collaborative, and fun.
Enjoy the event!
